

THE LAW

This is really the only LAW to know.
It is what Rules are made from:

And it harm none,
Do what you will!

IF, what you do WILL NOT harm a Human, Animal, Plant, Other Living or Not Living Spirit AND that includes yourself and others. (This includes all physical, mental, and verbal actions.)

THAN, it is OK to do what you want to do. But you still must follow other rules set in place, especially if they are meant to keep you safe.

What does this LAW mean to you?

Rules of Conduct

('it' refers to the Power/Magick/Energy)

1. Be careful what you do.
2. Be careful who you trust.
3. Remember - for 'it' to work you must feel it in your heart and know it in your mind.
4. Remember - (positive or negative) what you do, will come back

Remember: any rule is an acceptable rule, as long as it follows 'the LAW'

What other RULES do you know and follow?

SENT & RECEIVED

This is IMPORTANT, so please remember it well...

What you send,
WILL come back!

IF you send out GOOD energy....Good Energy you WILL receive back....BUT if you send out DIRTY, ROTTEN, MEAN Energy... than that is what you will receive back.

Did you ever notice that smiling not only feels good for you, but that it makes others feel good too...they may even smile back at you. Besides, no one ever likes to be around a grumpy, pouting person...so just smile anyways!

What are some examples of GOOD energy?

What are some examples of DIRTY or MEAN energy?

BELIEVE...

Here is one that only you will know the answer to...

If, you Believe in something,
Than, IT DOES Exist!

If you Don't Believe in it, than it DOES NOT Exist!

In otherwords, if you BELIEVE there is a monster under your bed...than it exists!! BUT, if you BELIEVE in Guardian Dragons than...he DOES EXSIST...so, all those weird noises you hear...are just the noises a dragon makes when he is trying to get cozy under your bed....I'll bet it's not that cozy under there...so next time you hear him, why not invite him up to sleep on the bed with you!

What do you BELEIVE in?
