

Note to Parents:

The following Book; My Little Book of Everything: My First Grimoire/Book of Shadows, was designed to introduce young pagans to the Earth-Based Spiritual Beliefs, starting around age 5 but even 3 year olds can help partake in these individual and family activities. It is still in the "on the table" process, but I wanted to share it with you so...that as I finish a section, I will be posting it on-line...it may be slow going...but my goal is to give "suggestions" and for you and your family to make it more... round it out to fit what you know and practise in your everyday lives. Sometimes the craft can be so adult, but it really starts when we are children...chasing butterflies in pastures or fairies in the forest.

I would like parents to work with their little ones...print off the pages and read through them with your child(ren)...discuss them and even do some of the questions or activities that are included. You can keep the pages as reference for their very own book (use a 3 prong folder...or binder) Than you can either hole punch the printable pages or slip them into page protector sleeves, but please remember these are only guides, I understand that everyone will discuss topics in their own words...and I strongly suggest that you have them make their own "PAGE" to reflect the topic. Let them express, on paper what they feel, learn, understand, or may even what to know more about - even if they sum it up into a picture (makes notes on the back - if necessary). I have included blank pages, just so they can create their own "matching" pages. (See my list of choices for cover options, blank pages and other options)

MY ONLY REQUEST: I may not be perfect, nor my pages...but DO NOT SELL or PASS THESE MY PAGES OFF AS YOUR OWN...I am offering my thoughts, suggestions and Energy for FREE...And I only ask that you respect that, so that I can continue to add more informational pages. If you have any suggestions or comments you would like me to consider please let me know...e-mail me at raynestorm3579@gmail.com.

Blessed Be, Rayne Storm

I believe in the Trinity of LEARN - LIVE - SHARE....we first learn as children, so that we can live our lives as adults...and so that one day we will share all that we know with other (like our children & their children)....while always still Learning, Living & LOVING it all too.
